Profile

Enthusiastic and dedicated student with B2 (Upper-Intermediate) English level. Keen on technologies and entrepreneurship. Learning new things, communicating with people, solving problems and coding is what truly drives me. Feeling great desire to gain more knowledge and skills in IT sphere. I am seeking a challenging role in a dynamic and innovative organization that allows me to learn and grow my technical skills while contributing to the development of high-quality software products. I have 5 years of non-commercial experience in coding and still I want to learn and develop my skills. You can see some Pet Projects on my GitHub account.
